

Do We Care Enough?

2 Corinthians 5:17-21

January 3, 2016

I. What is Evangelism?

- The proclaiming of the gospel or “good news” of the person and work of Christ.
- We cannot “live” the gospel, but we are able and commanded to proclaim it!

II. The Command of Evangelism (vss. 17-20)

- Evangelism is a command for everyone who is in Christ (vss. 17-20).
- God has given every Christian the ministry of reconciliation (vss. 18-19).
- Every Christian is an ambassador for Christ (v. 20).
- Every Christian is to implore people to be reconciled to God through Christ (v. 20).
- Evangelism is not only for the leaders of the church (Acts 8:1, 4).
- Biblical motivations for evangelism (Mt.22:37-40; Mt. 28:19-20; Jn. 14:15).

III. The Content of Evangelism (vs. 21)

- The content of evangelism is the person and work of Christ (v. 21, 1 Cor. 15:1-4; Rom. 1:1-4).
- The problem is sin (Rom. 3:23; 6:23).
- The solution is the person and work of Christ (v. 21; Rom. 1:1-4; 1 Cor. 15:1-4).
- The response is to repent and believe the gospel (Acts 20:21).
- Be respectful, gentle and humble. Remember that you too were once lost.

IV. The Confidence of Evangelism (vss. 17-18)

- All of salvation is from God (vss. 17-18; Rom. 1:16).
- Jesus promised to be with us in evangelism (Mt. 28:19-20; Rom. 8:31, 38-39; 1 Jn. 4:18).

- God does not expect us to be expert omniscient witnesses. He calls us to be faithful in sharing the simple gospel message. The results are in his hands.
- Jesus knew the answer to every possible question and objection, and yet people still rejected him.
- The power of salvation is the gospel.

Know: God commands every believer to evangelize. The content of evangelism is the person and work of Christ. We can have confidence in evangelism through trusting in the promises of God.

Do: Let's care enough about people to love them, develop relationships with them, serve them, and lovingly and gently open our mouths to share the gospel with them.
