

LIFE IN THE CHURCH

The Gospel-Centered Life — Mark 4:26-29
November 25, 2018

The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground. He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he knows not how. -Mark 4:26-27

I. WHAT WE CAN AND CANNOT DO

- Seeds and soils are common themes in Jesus' kingdom parables (Matt. 13:8; Mark 4:30; Luke 8:15).
- We can sow seed, and we can watch it grow (Matt. 13:3; Mark 4:26, 31).
- We have little power over the potential productivity of soil where seed is scattered, if the seed will grow, or if it will produce (Matt. 13:4; Mark 4:27; 1 Cor. 3:7).
- The kingdom is God's, not ours. He determines when and where the word will produce "fruit" (Deut. 30:6; Luke 10:22; 1 Cor. 3:7; Phil. 2:12-13).
- Our work is to sow the gospel. We are not responsible for, nor able, to produce anything, even in ourselves (John 15:4-5).
- Relax, you are not in charge of the harvest.

II. LIVING OUT A "GOSPEL-CENTERED LIFE"

- The gospel, once sown, never fails to produce a result, either negative or positive (Isa. 55:10-11; Heb. 4:12).
- When God's word is working in us, it produces fruit (Mark 4:8).

III. RECEIVING THE GOSPEL

- Ask God to open your ears (Mark 4:9; Matt. 13:23).
- Ask God to open your eyes (Matt. 13:11-16).
- Ask God to open your mind (Matt. 13:23).
- Ask God to open your heart (Heb. 3:15).
- Ask God to open your hands (Eph. 2:8-9).

KNOW: When we allow God to work in our lives, he always improves them and always leads us to a great harvest, both in the present and the future.

DO: Receive and live out the gospel-centered life.
