

LIVING IN EXILE

1 Peter 2:18-23—Glorious Suffering

April 3, 2016

KNOW: Biblical submission is not firstly about yielding to the will of the emperor, or your employer, or your husband. It is about embracing the order of God, trusting in the sovereignty of God and bowing before the majesty and Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Context

- Peter is giving instructions on how to live as aliens and exiles in hostile territory (2:11).
- Peter is giving instructions on how to live honorably among the Gentiles so that people will glorify God (2:12).
- Peter is explaining how to 'put to silence the ignorance of foolish people' (2:15).
- Peter's initial call is for submission: to the government (2:13-17), to your master (2:18-23), and in the family (3:1-7).

I. The Posture of Submission (2:18-20)

- Submission is a part of the Christian life.
- Submission is not circumstantial but positional.
- Submission may lead to suffering...endure it.
- Submission is a gracious thing when mindful of God.
- But don't suffer for doing wrong.

II. The Pattern of Submission (2:21-23)

- Christ has set for us an example.
- He submitted to the will of the Father.
- He suffered at the hands of man.
- He did not defend himself or threaten.
- He suffered for us.

III. The Protection of our Submission (2:23)

- When we entrust everything to God we are secure.
- When we entrust everything to God we proclaim his excellencies.
